

I fear for the freedom of the airwaves when large corporations are able to buy up stations without restriction. This situation reinforces those fears. Please be vigilant in your protection of our freedom of speech.